

CS 228 Grading Codes

Each problem is worth $\frac{100}{N}$ points, where N is the number of problems.

Code	Meaning	Value	Notes
+	correct	100%	or close enough to show understanding
~	has errors	75%	right idea, but some minor mistakes
?	incomplete	75%	need to justify, or missed some cases
~?	both ~ and ?	50%	didn't really answer the question
!	needs work	25%	not enough effort, or answer is way off
0	blank	0%	it's better to say something than nothing

Penalties

There is a 2-point penalty for not writing your name or e-ID where instructed.
(Your e-ID is your username on MyMadison. It is NOT your student number.)
